

Submitting an article electronically to law reviews via ExpressO

Step 1. Log in at: www.law.bepress.com/expresso and click "Start Your Submission." Every user must create a unique account based upon his/her e-mail address. To do this, click "Create a FREE account", complete a simple form and ExpressO e-mails you a confirmation code (required for logging in the first time). Thereafter, you will only need your email address and password to log in.

Step 2. Once logged in, you may edit your profile, if desired, before submitting articles. To begin the process for submitting articles: Click on ExpressO in the upper left corner of the screen. Do NOT click on bepress Legal Repository on the upper right side. At the next screen, click once again on "Submit your article now."

Step 3. Select manuscript file format and click "Continue." (Microsoft Word is preferred)

Step 4. Select the reviews to which you would like to deliver your article by clicking the box next to the law review name and then click "Continue".

A full list is organized alphabetically over 10 pages; move between pages by clicking the page number shown at the top and bottom of each page. Alternately, use "browse reviews by category" or "search by title" to identify law reviews. [The top 100 law reviews are available within "browse by category," divided into two groups: 1-50 and 51-100.]

Step 5. Verify the list of selected law reviews and click "Continue".

Step 6.

- Enter your article title
Select matching terms to Index your article to Legal Periodical Subject areas
Upload your article by clicking "Browse" to locate your article saved on your computer and double click on it. The document path should appear in the field.
You may also upload a cover letter and a CV, if desired.
Select whether or not you want to be notified of new research papers that match the subject area of your submission by clicking either the Yes or No button.
Click NO on making this version of your manuscript available to other scholars as a working paper in the bepress Legal Repository.
Click "Continue"

Step 7. Review delivery details and click "Finish" when ready to send your article.
